1. Advocate for the petitioners states that the petitioner-company has not contacted her and she has no instructions. It is seen that the matter was adjourned in order to find out what was the fate of the reference before the BIFR. Now, affidavit dated 24.10.2005 is filed stating that the BIFR passed an order directing the winding up of the said company. On being asked whether the said order can be produced, she stated that since there are no instructions, such an order of BIFR cannot be produced. None appears for the Company though served. In the circumstances, petition is dismissed for non prosecution.
